ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY

Capt. Slaymaker has issued the following order, which will be delivered to the members of the Alexandria Light Infantry at a special drill to be held in the armory tonight at 8 o'clock.

Sergeant A. M. Morgan, of the Fifth Infantry, U. S. A., having reported for 10 days service with this command as special instructor, all members of this command will report at the armory on the following evenings unless previously furloughed: Friday, May 6th, to leave the armory at 6:30 for extended order work outside; Monday, May 9th at 8 p. m.; Tuesday, May 10th, to leave the armory at 6:30 for extended order work outside; Thursday, May 12th and Friday May 13th at 8 p. m.

The two drills in extended order on Friday night of this week and Tuesday of next, will be on the hills at George Washington Park and Rosemont, and should prove interesting to the public, as the company will be instructed in battle formations.

The non-commissioned officers met with Sergeant Morgan last night at Capt. Slaymaker's home in Rosemont, and held a school of instruction.

Sergeant Morgan said he had met Capt. Hutton, who inspected the company here April 11th, at St. George, and Capt. Hutton said: "When you go to Alexandria, you had better study upon your drill regulations a week ahead or they will catch you, sure. They have the best all round company in the state at Alexandria."

SATAN SIFTS.

With splendid power and eloquence, Dr. Wellford told of Peter's temptation and fall and relating, at the Second Presbyterian Church last night. The large audience listened with scarcely a movement while he told of Peter's declaration that though all the world should desert the Master he would be true; how he proved that he would in smiling at the ear of his servant who tried to take the Lord. Then he showed how Peter, when following star off, fell into sin, and basely denied his Lord. But Christ did not give him up. When he came forth from the dead he sent the message of good news to His disciples and Peter! When the appeal was made for all who wished to take Jesus Christ as their Saviour a number came forward. Almost a fourth of the congregation went into the lecture room for the after meeting, for further instruction in the Christian life.

Tonight will be the final service of the series conducted by Dr. Wellford, as he has to be back in Newport News Friday night. Everyone who has heard and met Dr. Wellford during his stay in the city has been won by him, and there will doubtless be a great audience tonight to hear his farewell sermon.

The Westminster Quartette did not sing last night, owing to the unavoidable absence of one member, but it is expected that they will be present tonight and will sing. Mrs. Sevier, of Tennessee, will also sing. Dr. Wellford will answer the remaining questions tonight at 7:45. The service proper will begin at eight o'clock.

GOOD ROADS MEETING.

A grand rally in the interest of good roads, etc., in Fairfax county will be held at Lids, on the Little River turnpike three miles east of Fairfax, by the Fairfax County Good Roads Association and the Anti-Slavery League of Northern Virginia on Thursday, May 26. There will be music by a brass band and special congratulations. The programme includes: Addresses on agriculture by W. H. Hays, assistant secretary of agriculture, and W. J. Spillman, Bureau of Plant Industry. General discussion on agriculture opened by W. E. Carson, president of the International Lime Association, Riverina. Address by Hon. C. O. Carlin. Addresses on good roads by Senator J. H. Bankhead of Alabama, P. St. Julian Wilson, State highway commissioner and J. E. Penzabaker of the Department of Agriculture. General discussion on good roads. Addresses on temperance by Rev. E. J. Richardson, secretary Anti-Slavery League of Northern Virginia; Mrs. Amie O. Welch, of Alexandria, district secretary of W. O. T. U., and Rev. F. J. Prentiss, D. D., presiding elder of Washington District, Methodist Church South. General discussion on temperance.

MOTORCYCLISTS FINED.

Two young Alexandrians were before the Police Court this morning charged with exceeding the speed limit through the streets on their motorcycles. Officer Talbot had cited the men to appear and Officer Gill was one of the witnesses. The latter testified that he was in a room at his home on Lee street, near Prince, when the accused passed at a high speed. The distance from the spot where he was seated and his front door in 25 feet, and although he moved toward the door as quickly as possible the motorcycles were at Duke street when he reached the doorway. In other words, the accused had passed over 475 feet while the officer was walking 25 feet. Justice Oton fined the young men $10 each. They were represented by Mr. Robinson Moncre.

OPERA HOUSE.

The regular mid-week change in programme at the Opera House tonight will consist of Warner & Lytle, expert team dancers, and "Musical La Noire" who come from the Keith circuit of theatres with the highest endorsement. The management desires to impress upon their patrons again, that all moving pictures shown will be seen at their house for the first time in Alexandria.

John D. Rockefeller would go broke if he should spend his entire income trying to prepare a better medicine than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is simply impossible, and so says every one that has used it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

George Washington's warning, "Never trust a negro with a gun," might be amended by the words, "nor some negroes with freedom." A firm dealing in wood and coal was anxious this morning to employ laborers to aid in unloading a barge, and a representative of the firm approached five darkeys who were standing idly in front of a bootblack's stand at the southwest corner of King and Royal streets and offered them a dollar and a half a day if they would go to work. They declined the proffer. A group in front of another stand near the northwest corner was approached and they were asked to aid in unloading the barge. They, too, refused. The would-be employer was exasperated and he says he will ask that the vagrant act be enforced.

ENTERTAINMENT.

There will be a musical entertainment in the Christ Church Parish Hall, Friday evening at 8 o'clock, which will be given by the older girls and boys of the Sunday school. The young people have been rehearsing for some time and a very delightful evening is expected. The successful affairs given by these performers before are well remembered, and a large audience is sure to be in attendance. The proceeds are to be used for installing a kitchen in the parish hall which will make this building one of the most complete of its kind in this section. Some of the other entertainments produced by these young people have been "Ma Dusenberry and Her Girls," "Aunt Dinah's Hacking Bee," and "Pansy Blossom's Baby Party," the last named being so successful that it had to be repeated.

PATRONS' DAY.

"Patrons' Day" was held in the Lee School yesterday. The building was open to the public from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. The visitors seemed very much pleased not only with the building but also with the method of instruction. There were no special exercises, as it was the desire of the school authorities to let the public see how the schools are conducted. The free kindergarten was a source of much interest. In the afternoon a fire drill was held for the benefit of the visitors. Not only on "Patrons' Day" but on any day during the school term the public is cordially invited to visit the schools.
